Here Are Two Opportunities To Hear
Fine Organ Concerts On January 19th

Before Our Festival Of Sacred Music On January 26th

Organist Dexter Kennedy will present an organ concert at Christ Church, 4030 Manatee Ave. West, Bradenton, on Sunday, January 19 at 4:00 pm.

Dexter Kennedy

Admission is free. Kennedy, a specialist in French organ music, will perform on the Létourneau organ (2006) which sounds with a “French accent”, according to organist Richard Benedum. Kennedy is a past winner of the International Chartres competition, and he has been praised for his “prodigious technique and grand style musicality” (The American Organist). He teaches at the College of Wooster, Ohio and holds diplomas from the Oberlin Conservatory of Music and the Yale School of Music.

Kent Tittle

Organist Kent Tittle, Director of Cathedral Music at St. John the Divine in New York City and organist for the New York Philharmonic, will present an organ concert on Sunday, January 19 at 4:30 pm (tickets - $20.00) and conduct the monthly service of Evensong (free) at 5:30 pm at Church of the Redeemer, 222 South Palm Ave., Sarasota. Choral music will be: Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis by Herbert Howells and Hail Gladdening Light by Charles Wood. Tickets for the 4:30 pm organ concert may be purchased at the door or at this link:
